I said to the Lord, "You are my Lord; apart from You I have no good thing." Psalm 16:2

May 2011

I heard you broke your arm- how are you doing?

Yes that is right- I was being my normal, goofy self, played a little too hard and broke my radius about two months ago. It definitely made life more challenging having my right arm casted past my elbow! Fortunately after three weeks we were able to cut the cast in the middle of the forearm so that I could bend my elbow again, and take the cast off completely just one week later. I am occasionally using a splint that a friend loaned me, but I am very close to being back to full strength! Praise the Lord!

What I have been learning...

Besides more medical knowledge and Tok Pisin, God has been teaching me that perfect love drives out fear. What does it look like for me to be in relationship and love that person so that they have no fear in my love? Just as I feel safe, comfortable, secure, and happy in God's love- I want my love towards others to look like His. Pray that God continues to teach me in His ways and allows me to bless others through my love.

A special thanks to...

The Weniger family and specifically Shannon Weniger. For taking such good care of me the past month! The Wenigers let me move in with them during the school break so almost the whole time that my arm was in a cast I had help with daily chores such as dishes, laundry, cooking, and wrapping my arm for showering. I think this gave all of us a taste of what God wants Christian community, life, and love to look like.

1 John 4:18 There is no fear in love. But perfect love drives out fear...

Quote of the Month:
"If you read history you will find that the Christians who did most for the present world were precisely those who thought most of the next. It is since Christians have largely ceased to think of the other world that they have become so ineffective in this."
C. S. Lewis

This has really been on my heart this past month. It has been my prayer that I will focus on things above, and not on things that are seen. Pray Christ becomes more a reality to me more than anything else!
